Out of love of the sauna experience and respect for the Kirami FinVision® sauna, we have developed our own high-quality Kirami FinVision® Experience bench towel (pefletti) series for those enchanted by enjoyment of the sauna. The pleasure of steam carries the bather away, and the carefully finished textiles bring the atmosphere up a notch or two towards refined everyday luxury. Enjoy life with relaxed and warm feelings – Kirami Warmer Feelings.

The Kirami FinVision® Experience -pefletti is a high-quality and pleasant-feeling bench towel made of 100% cotton. The dimensions of the bench towel are 45 x 55 cm, and it retains both its shape and colour after washing. Made of cotton, the bench towel are breathable, they do not itch or irritate the skin, and their robust quality ensures that they last a long time. Wash at 40 °C.

The bathrobes, towels and peflettis of the Kirami FinVision® Experience range have a unified colour scheme. The matching colours create a harmonious look for your spa area.

It is important to Kirami that we know where our products come from.

Kirami bath textiles are made in Portugal. Portugal is a EU country that is not classified as a high-risk country. In Portugal, working life is regulated by law, and the authorities also supervise compliance with the law. Portugal has ratified the ILO (International Labour Organization) Conventions. The principles of the ILO state that all of its member countries are obligated to eradicate forced labour, child labour and discrimination, and to guarantee freedom of association.

How did Kirami FinVision® Experience come about?

We feel that Kirami FinVision® Experience reflects the essence of what Kirami products are about: sensations, pleasures, experiences. The starting point for the design of the logo was the idea of having the graphical style convey naturalness, enjoyment of life and genuineness, all of which are part of Kirami's DNA. The Kirami FinVision® text is styled in accordance with the Kirami brand, complemented with the word 'Experience' in a cursive-like font at a slight angle. The font and its forward-leaning shape in italics, as well as its slightly diagonal positioning, reflect a human touch, freedom, carefreeness and creativity. Life is here and now, and we must be able to enjoy it. The full stop at the end symbolises an uncompromising attitude. Kirami always stands by its promises.

The Kirami FinVision® Experience bench towel (pefletti) sleeve ties together two pleasantly high-quality and carefully finished bench towels. Woven from cotton, one of the stylish bench towels has an elegant white and grey colour scheme, while the other one has a charmingly romantic white and rose colour scheme. The gracefully woven diagonal stripes liven up the sauna bench, bringing the steamy atmosphere to even greater heights.
